This Council:

- Commits to upholding the highest standards of public office
- Encourages all Members, officers and residents alike to avoid unkind, rude and personal attacks and comments against anyone
- Given recent global events, recognises the Office for Democratic Institutions and Human Rights statement on racism & xenophobia:
 - "Prejudice or hostility towards a person's race, colour, language, nationality, or national or ethnic origin. While some communities are particularly vulnerable, any ethnic group can be the target of racism. Intolerant discourse in the media or from politicians can lead to increased racist sentiments towards migrants and other minorities, including in the form of scapegoating."
