

We are aware that a document was submitted as evidence for the licensing panel on Monday 21st March which contained some personal information which should have been redacted. If you downloaded a version of the agenda between 21 March and 25 March 2022, please delete this and use the redacted copy now available. Please note that if you were to distribute, copy, or use the data in any way, without the permission of the data controller, this would be an offence under the Data Protection Act (2018)