3. Sensitive interests

Where you consider that disclosure of the details of a disclosable pecuniary interest could lead to you, or a person connected with you, being subject to violence or intimidation, and the Monitoring Officer agrees, if the interest is entered on the register, copies of the register that are made available for inspection and any published version of the register will exclude details of the interest, but may state that you have a disclosable pecuniary interest, the details of which are withheld under Section 32(2).

4. Offences

It is a criminal offence to:

- Fail to notify the Monitoring Officer of any disclosable pecuniary interest within 28 days of election;

The criminal penalties available to a court are to impose a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale and disqualification from being a councillor for up to 5 years.

Part 2: Registered Personal Interests (required by the Member Code of Conduct)

There are no criminal sanctions attached to this second group of interests, but failure to declare them may incur a risk of being in breach of the Member Code of Conduct.

An explanation of these interests is as follows:

Membership of Other Bodies: This is fairly self explanatory. It asks you to list any membership of a body in which you have general control or management AND to which you have been appointed or nominated by your authority. This includes non executive directorships of RBWM companies, provided you do not receive any remuneration from the company. If you do receive remuneration(income) for this role, you will need to declare it as a Disclosable Pecuniary Interest under 'Employment'. (see above) A 'body' in this sense means a group whose members who have a common aim or theme.

Membership of any body exercising functions of a public nature/charity/influence of public opinion or policy: This part of the code asks you to list membership of certain bodies of which you are a member OR, if not a member, if you have a close association with that body, or if you are in a position of general control or management. The categories of those bodies are as follows.

Paragraph (ii) a) asks you to list your membership of those bodies which exercise functions of a public nature. To help you decide whether the body of which you are a member 'exercises functions of a public nature', you may wish to ask yourself these questions:

- Does that body carry out a public service
- Is the body taking the place of local or central government in carrying out the function?
- Is the body exercising a function delegated to it by a public authority?
- Can the body's decisions be judicially reviewed?

Examples are: regional and local government agencies, other councils, public health bodies, council owned companies exercising public functions, school governing bodies. If you can answer 'yes' to these questions then you will need to register your membership in this part.

Paragraph (ii) b) asks you to list those bodies which receive any grant from the Council Paragraph (ii) c) concerns declaring membership of bodies directed to charitable purposes. Members who are Freemasons only need to list this if they are members of the Grand Charity.

Finally, paragraph (ii) d) ask you to declare your membership of a body whose principal purpose includes the influencing of public opinion or policy. This includes your membership of a political party or trade union.

Paragraph iii) is self explanatory, requiring you to list your membership of any private club, society or association operating in the Council's area where you hold a position of general control of management.

Paragraph iv) asks you to list anything which you feel a member of the public might reasonably think may influence you when you make a decision on Council matters. An example is given where a decision relates to a close family member or friend.
