REPORT SUMMARY

1. This paper introduces a refreshed RBWM Transformation Programme (strategy) 2015-18. The Programme is designed to respond to the changing face and funding structure of local government and enable the Royal Borough to become a change ready and 'Agile' organisation.
2. This Transformation Programme is ambitious; it seeks substantial and sustainable change to cope with the increasing demands on local government but also seeks to meet the changing needs of residents, within tightening financial constraints, without compromising the quality of our services.
3. Successful implementation of the strategy will result in new operating models for our services, delivered by employees who are skilled and confident; able to respond positively to challenges and act to maximise opportunities, who will ensure we continue to utilise the right tools and technologies to provide quality services to residents.

If recommendations are adopted, how will residents benefit?

2. The strategy looks to put in place operating models which will both reduce the cost and increase the efficiency of the services which we provide to residents.	From 1 April 2016 onwards

1. DETAILS OF RECOMMENDATIONS

RECOMMENDATION: That Cabinet:

- i. Approves the refreshed RBWM Transformation Programme 2015-18: An Agile Council.

2. REASON FOR RECOMMENDATION(S) AND OPTIONS CONSIDERED

- 2.1 The purpose of the refreshed transformation programme is to create a lean and agile organisation, focused on customers, services and the communities we serve.
- 2.2 Transformation is about changing the way an organisation functions; through better use of technologies, changes to working practices and structures, the introduction of new operating models and encouraging changes to customer behaviours.
- 2.3 In February 2016 both Council and Cabinet reviewed a medium term financial plan (MTFP) identifying £14.595m of savings targets for the three directorates for the period 2017/18 – 2019/20. Clearly, the council is operating in a challenging time with increases in demand for services alongside these ongoing financial constraints. The transformation programme sets out how we will increase innovation and use of digital technology, create a much stronger customer focused and commercial orientation to generate additional income and/or reduce costs and introduce different ways of delivering our services going forward, across the full range of services we provide.
- 2.4 Our transformation programme will focus on three key areas:
 - Knowing our services – undertaking Fundamental Service Reviews (FSRs) of our activities and using the information gleaned to plan the future scope and volume of service outcomes, and how they are achieved.
 - Having the right people and tools – creating a strong ‘can do’ culture across the organisation and equipping managers with the right skills to do their jobs.
 - Delivering differently – using relevant information and management skills to adapt our services, providing us with the ability to flex the size and shape of the council over time to meet demands and pressures we face.
- 2.5 These key areas (workstreams) will be delivered through a number of projects, which are currently in the process of being fully defined. The basis of this is set out in appendix B.

OPTIONS CONSIDERED

Options	Comments
Approve the Transformation Programme 2015-18. This is the recommended option	This option allows us to become an agile council, able to respond to the changing environment of local government and the challenges and opportunities this presents.
Not approve the Transformation Programme 2015-18. This is not recommended	This option could lead a reactive response to the changing environment we face and may affect our opportunities to achieve sustainable change and savings.

3. KEY IMPLICATIONS

3.1 Transformation is not something that is new to the Royal Borough, and the new programme identifies some of our achievements of the last few years – but there is more to do. By 2018, through this refreshed transformation programme we expect to be a council which is:

- More self reliant – successful in becoming less dependent on central government funding and increasing our income generation;
- Equipped to work in new ways – regularly commissioning the services we need based on outcomes for residents, and making evidence based decisions on those services we change;
- Quicker to respond – more able to adapt to changing circumstances and residents’ needs, including improving our digital offer to customers;
- Providing a mixed economy of service provision – taking different approaches to delivering services, taking ideas from all sectors as well as our own.

3.2 The key outcomes of this transformation programme are set out below:

1. INTRODUCTION

- 1.1 Our transformation programme is designed to respond to the changing environment of local government. The public sector is at a turning point in its evolution; change is the norm and 'change ready', agile and commercially focused public service organisations are required.
- 1.2 We anticipate significant changes in the needs, behaviours and expectations of residents, customers, clients and communities - compounded by the reality of deficit reduction. We expect an increase in the volume of demand for council services; with particular growth in demographic-led demand for the services used by young and older people. That is, a likely disproportionate level of spend required for a small number of people with high needs where people (adults and children) are dependent on more restrictive support.
- 1.3 Demand is growing for a number of reasons; people are living longer and our lifestyles are changing and so too are our expectations – people want to stay out of hospitals, people want to remain in their own homes as they get older, and we are gaining greater understanding of issues such as child sexual exploitation and what we need to do about it. These are the areas where the costs are greatest; placing extra financial pressure on the Royal Borough of Windsor and Maidenhead (RBWM) every year. Meanwhile our duty to lead and support communities and create vibrant places and spaces for people to live, learn, work and play continues unabated.
- 1.4 The Royal Borough has a track record of responding positively to these challenges. We recognise and embrace the changing landscape of local government; operating in an environment of increasing demand and reducing resource. To ensure we respond to these challenges and opportunities, and continue to provide local people with the quality services they expect, we need to do things differently and change the way the council functions; Our transformation programme is enabling RBWM to do just that, and become an 'AGILE COUNCIL'.
- 1.5 An 'Agile Council' is one that has the knowledge, will and ability to transform efficiently and effectively within meaningful and appropriate timescales. It adheres to the principles of data-driven decision making, outcome based planning and performance management. It delivers valued and precise outcomes through the most effective operating models, by employees who are skilled and confident, who respond positively to challenges and act to maximise opportunities.
- 1.6 The recent local government settlement introduces changes to the ways the sector will be funded in the future. It sets out reductions in our revenue support grant going forward. The council, like the whole sector, therefore faces significant financial challenges over the period to 2020, with a current funding gap of approximately £14.5million over the period. We are committed to limit council tax rises at or below the rate of inflation whilst improving our services, which itself limits our choices and supports the need for us to become more Agile.
- 1.7 RBWM has an advantage over many other public, voluntary and private sector organisations in that we are in touch with the views of residents of the borough and have a mandate to commission services from a broad range of providers, including ourselves. We will work closely with partners, stakeholders and communities to address our financial challenges and determine the scope, size and content of our future services.

- 1.8 While the transformation programme will change the way the council functions we will also achieve continuous improvement through our 'business as usual' activities; it is intended that an 'Agile Council' will become the cultural norm. In this way the success of the transformation programme is complete when 'Agile' itself is business as usual.

2. TRANSFORMATION AMBITION AND OUTCOMES

- 2.1 The council's ambition, as articulated in our Corporate Plan 2016-20 and through this transformation programme, is to for the Royal Borough to be:

“A great place to live, work, play and do business, supported by a modern, dynamic and successful council.”

- 2.2 The transformation programme has solid foundations, built upon the preceding initiative of a business improvement programme (BIP) using lean and service reviews and earlier iterations of transformation. These initiatives assisted the council to successfully deliver balanced budgets and ensure continued financial stability. This transformation programme is more ambitious; it seeks substantial and sustainable change to cope with the increasing demands on local government. It also seeks to meet the changing needs of residents, within these tightening financial constraints, without compromising the quality of our services.

Anticipated outcomes of our transformation programme

By 2018 we expect to be a council which is:

- Resident Focused – Our customers will be able to access some services 24/7 and self-service for simple transactions will become the norm. Where possible, we will develop a single view of the customer, to ensure our staff have the right information and our customers receive consistently high levels of service, resolved at the first point of contact. Service will be provided at the point of need, be that in council buildings, through our libraries, through partner buildings and, if needed, in customers' homes.
- Value for Money – RBWM will be 'Lean', in terms of efficient and effective processes. We will implement a 'mixed economy' of different delivery models for our services, adopting the best model for each service, rather than a one size fits all approach. Being flexible about our future operating models will provide us with the ability to flex the size and shape of RBWM over time to meet demands and pressures, such as funding, demographic and policy changes.
- Delivering Together – We will be a smaller, smarter organisation, having successfully built sustainable partnerships across the public, third sector and private sectors and through them support the changing behaviours and needs of our residents. Our operating models will make us a sustainable council. We will continue to champion the Big Society, and will have devolved service provision through local partners and communities where the will to do so exists. We will also seek to optimise use of our assets and be smarter in our procurement activities.
- Equipped for the Future – We will continue to lead the way in local government, an innovative and self-sustaining council staffed by professional, trained officers with real ambition for our communities; a flexible and agile council that is an employer of choice in our sector and which residents are proud of.

3. TRANSFORMATION STRANDS

3.1 Our transformation programme has three strands to it.

STRAND ONE – ‘KNOWING OUR SERVICES’

3.2 The first strand is to undertake Fundamental Service Reviews (FSRs) for each of the council’s activities. The FSR is essential to provide insight and understanding that will enable continual thinking and planning to determine the future scope and volume of service outcomes, and how they are best achieved. It will also provide greater understanding of the priorities, challenges and opportunities facing services. We will use this understanding and detailed information on our services to identify and plan for the best future service provision. The key outputs of this work strand are:

- The council will become outcome focused so that decisions about what the Council does and how it does it are based on which choice makes the best contribution to the Council’s priority outcomes;
- The council will employ the principles of a business intelligence system to push knowledge towards employees required to take actions, and make decisions at the time, place and in the right format for them to make best use of it. Taking the view that data is just facts and figures, information is structured, contextualised data and knowledge is purposed and insightful information.

STRAND TWO - ‘HAVING THE RIGHT PEOPLE AND TOOLS’

3.3 To do this successfully we will require leaders, managers and officers with a broad range of skills who can help articulate challenges and spot opportunities for communities and the council alike. A key part of our transformation programme will be creating a strong ‘can do’ organisational culture, with modern managers and modern management skills. The key outputs of this work strand are:

- Managers who have a shared understanding of the fundamental tools and techniques of management and an appreciation of the essential role of leadership;
- Managers who have a shared understanding of change and project management and who can employ an ‘Agile Approach’ to delivering beneficial outcomes;
- Managers who have a shared understanding of the function and importance of knowledge management such that they can ensure optimal decisions, management of risk, precision of action and required performance;
- Staff at all levels act in line with the councils CREATE values.

STRAND THREE – ‘DELIVERING DIFFERENTLY’

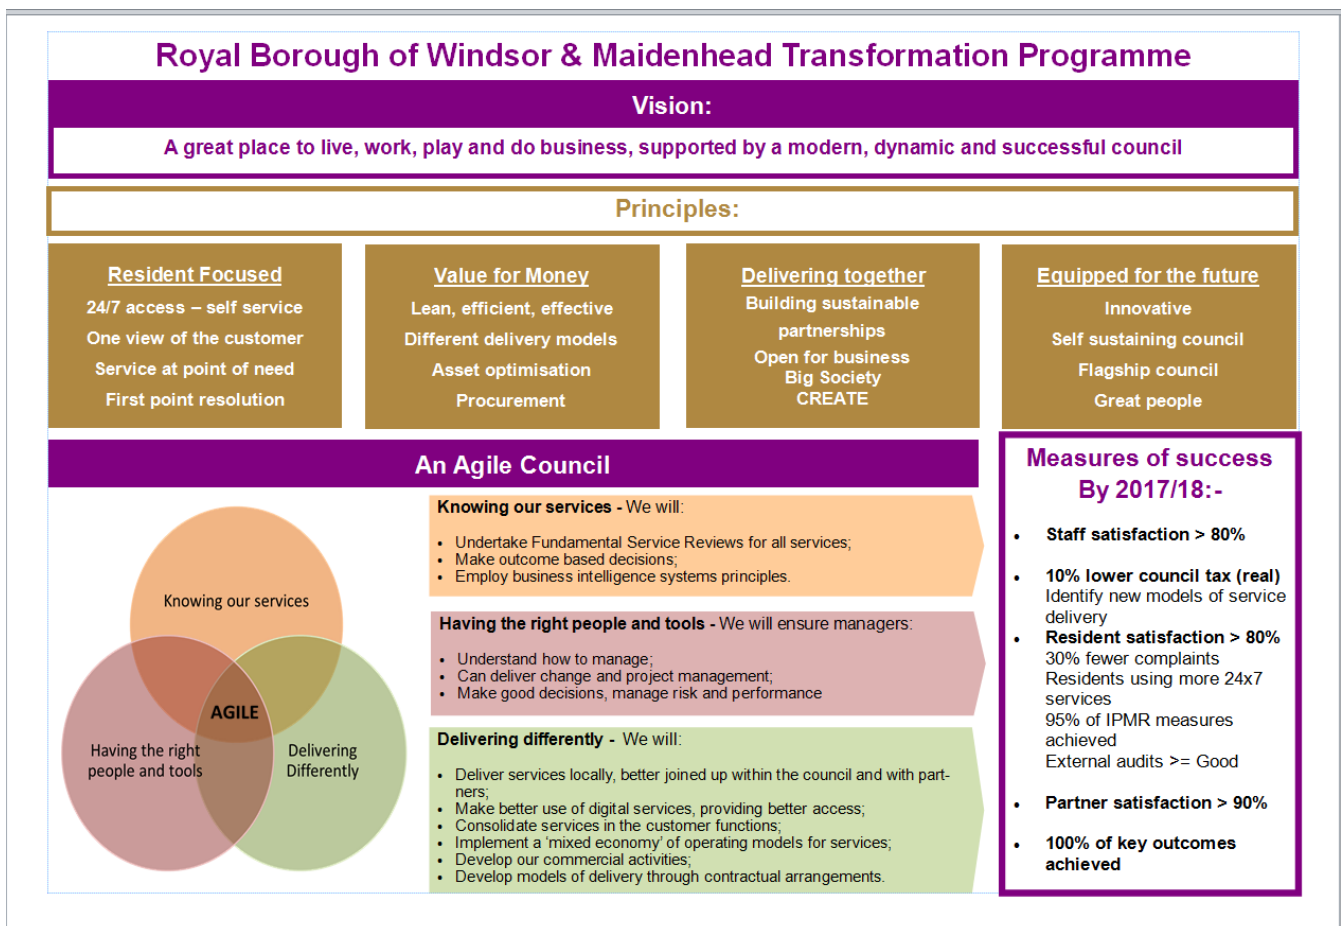

3.4 With the right business intelligence system and information, and managers and officers with the right skills to identify opportunities and challenges ahead, we can create a Agile Council, fit for purpose and able to adapt. ‘Delivering Differently’ articulates an ambition to create a ‘mixed economy’ approach to service provision in the future. The key outputs of this work strand are:

- Services delivered locally so that services are planned in, delivered in and accountable to the localities they serve and are better able to join up within the council and with other public sector partners;

- Better use made of digital services so that customers have greater access; also services are available at times that suit them and on devices that suit them;
- Consolidated services in the customer functions and the back office support functions, so that they are more efficient;
- A mixture of operating models implemented and utilised for the provision of our services; the right solutions for our services;
- Commercial activity developed and opportunities to spin out services, part of services and/or new services through our trading company, RBWM Commercial Services, to be maximised;
- Opportunities to use our assets (land and buildings) in creative ways to generate capital and revenue receipts is maximised;
- Models of delivery achieved through contractual arrangement, grants or other funding mechanisms are developed;
- Communities better supported to reduce dependence on the council through facilitating, enabling, organising and funding activities.

4. HOW WE GET THERE

4.1 Delivery of this revised transformation programme will build on the successes, and structures, we have already achieved.

- 4.2 The programme will change how we do business, to improve services to residents and to provide better value for money. It will involve better alignment of the Council's staff, processes and technology with our objectives and priorities in order to support and help innovate new ways of working and provide new levels of customer service.
- 4.3 Transformation is achieved when 'Agile' becomes 'business as usual'. It will result in new operational models, better management practices, more efficient processes, new technology, improved leadership and will influence culture, staff training and structures.
- 4.4 Projects and work-streams will continue to be identified and managed through Verto, supported by the Corporate Programme Office. The existing transformation programme benefits realisation and performance management structures will continue (see figure 2 below) - to enable, track and bring about real change. Likewise, we will continue to centrally coordinate change communications, supported by our Change Agents and Champions.

- 4.5 We are taking a priority-based approach as we have limited resource and organisational capacity for change and cannot transform everything at once. A roadmap will be developed to show the journey and steps for transformation within the three areas, with individual projects and their approximate start and delivery dates.

5. OUR TRANSFORMATION ACHIEVEMENTS TO DATE
