

Liquid Funds

Investments in bank deposit account(s) and money market funds providing instant access to funds.

Fixed Term Deposits

Investments in banks, building societies and local authorities. Funds are usually invested for three months or more but not usually for longer than 12 months.